About Sibusiso

Sibusiso Molimi is a dynamic Master of Ceremonies, Keynote Speaker and Entrepreneur who partners with business professionals, executives, young leaders and entrepreneurs to help them work through their barriers to success.

After spending nearly a decade working in the speaking industry with multinational companies in various industries, Sibusiso knows how to be a catalyst that empowers others.

Captivating, professional, relatable, persuasive and humorous are a few words that encapsulate this prolific speaker.

From his humble upbringing in Soweto, Sibusiso's intelligence and undeniable talent was quick to attract three prestigious institutions who each awarded him with bursaries to grow and develop him to his journey to success. Sibusiso now holds a Bachelors of Commerce in Business Management from the University of Pretoria. He also completed various business communication skills courses.

His streetwise sense of humour and ingenious wit makes him a well-rounded speaker suitable for any audience.

The Keynote Speaker

Sibusiso's tenacity and his persuasive way of engaging an audience – makes him an ideal keynote speaker for clients who want to change the behaviour of their teams from the inside out. He motivates and activates the inner leader of anyone listening to him – and he brilliantly uses humour to entertain his crowd.

He has been personally mentored by the well-known Sibusiso Leope and has shared stages with many of South Africa's top influencers.

Sibusiso delivered a thought-provoking keynote address entitled The Gig Economy at the 2020 Vodacom NXT LVL 2.0 Careers Expo. His talk provided encouragement to young leaders on how to thrive in the ever-changing world of work, one gig at a time.

The Keynote Speaker

Sibusiso has presented a plethora of keynote addresses for many organisations including:

- Medunsa
 - Primedia Group
